NEW ELECTRIC COMPANY ASKS TOWN COUNCIL FOR FRANCHISE

Half-Million Dollar Concern to be Organized as Competitor to West Penn, Promoter Tells Members.

STEAM HEAT AND HOT WATER

Will Break Ground Two Weeks After Franchise is Granted, He Declares; Council to Proceed Against W. D. McGinnis for Taking Hose House.

Although Connellsville is the electric light and power center of Western Pennsylvania and the home of the big West Penn system, another concern desired to enter the town in competition for the electric light business. At last night's meeting of Town Council, J. George Kaehler, who says he represents New York, Rochester and Cleveland interests, petitioned for a franchise for the Connellsville Public Service Company a $500,000 corporation who says will be organized to furnish electric light, steam heat and hot water service.

The proposition was referred to the finance and light committees to be considered with Hirschel Shaffer & D. Munson before the next meeting of Council on June 6. At that time it is expected an ordinance will be introduced.

Two weeks after the franchise is granted the company, Mr. Kaehler said, ground will be broken for the erection of a power house, and six months from that date the company will be in a position to supply its patrons. Mr. Kaehler has been in Connellsville much of the time during the last four weeks studying local conditions. Local business men, he claims, are interested in the enterprise.

The Kaehler interests, he says, are heavy stockholders in a score of public utilities corporations throughout the country. Three of the biggest are the Republic Railway & Light Company, New Castle, Pa.; the Central Station Electric Company, Cleveland, and the Youngstown Electric Light Company of Youngstown, O.

Mr. Kaehler is a director of several Rochester banks and organized several corporations in Pennsylvania a score of years ago. Among them in Western Pennsylvania he mentioned companies now under the control of the West Penn in Greene, Fayette, Washington and West Newton. Twenty years ago he made an unsuccessful effort to secure a franchise for an electric company in Connellsville. Connellsville, W. A. Bishop, recognized Mr. Kaehler when he appeared in the council chamber.

The other most interesting feature of the council session was the decision to proceed against W. D. McGinnis for larceny by bailee for the sum of $14.62 and costs for the removal of the old hose house from the Second ward. The master had been held in jail in Council for the last time. McGinnis paid his fine and removed it from the old bassett grounds. It is now a hencoop. Councilman Brennan made the motion to proceed against Mr. McGinnis to bring the master to a head.

John Mitchell complained to Council that the Pennsylvania railroad is blocking an alley near his home and requested that the master be referred to the borough solicitor for action. This was done.

In response to a request from J. C. Munson to change the circuit on the part of Pittsburgh street and Baldwin avenue at the Baptist Church property, permission was given, and the clerk was directed to notify the Bell Telephone Company to remove a pole standing on that corner.

John Frankel reported that the property he gave him several years ago by a borough engineer was incorrect and that as a consequence he erected a wall, part of which will probably have to be removed. The property is on Cottage avenue. The borough solicitor was notified to look into the matter.

K. K. Reiner representing property owners of Isabella road between Green street and Patterson avenue, requested that a stricture be made to establish a grade on that portion of Isabella road so that the property owners can lay pavements. The question was referred to committee.

With reference to the claims of owners of the Yancey estate, Crossland and Haddock on Main street, West Side, who allege that their properties were damaged by the grading and paving of that thoroughfare, Solicitor Munson informed Council that the viewers appointed by the court would view the property next Tuesday morning. The solicitor, borough engineer and the master of the account committee were directed to be present.

Chairman Clark of the street committee reported investigating the proposed establishing of a grade on Arch street. On account of the large expense attached to the proposition, he said, he would not recommend that the grade be established at this time.

The borough collector was asked to appear before the next grand jury in an effort to influence the county to assume jurisdiction of the Baldwin avenue bridge. P. M. Buttermore called attention to the need of electric light beneath the Pennsylvania railroad bridge on the West Side. The chairman of the light committee was directed to notify the company to provide the needed illumination.

Councilman Harmening broached the question of the ownership of the Greenwood addition sewers. The solicitor was instructed to investigate

Y. M. C. A. BOOSTERS GAIN MANY NEW MEMBERS

Members Confident They Will Have 500 on the Rolls by the End of the Month; Perrus Sends His Application From Greece, Rival Teams Keenly Interested and Competition for Membership Is Sharp.

An enthusiastic meeting of the booster's committee of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the association room last evening, and plans for increasing the membership of the organization were discussed. Reports received from the four team captains were presented, and it is hoped that the enrollment will reach the 500 mark before the last of the month. Refreshments were served by a committee of young men.

In connection with the booster campaign, an interesting letter from James L. Perrus, who enlisted in the Greek army during the Balkan War, was read. Mr. Perrus is a member of the association and has always taken an interest in its welfare. He sent Secretary Baer a check for his membership.

"I beg your pardon for the delay in sending my subscription long ago, because in the noise of the war, I some pretty near to forget the duties of the citizen. I enclose five dollars. My best regards to the Board of Directors and the good citizens of Connellsville."

There is sharp competition among the teams soliciting membership.

WEST PENN'S WORK IN GREENWOOD IS NEARLY COMPLETE

New Storage Barn, Paint
Shop and Forge House
About Ready.

PREPARE FOR SUMMER TRAFFIC

Newly Painted Open Cars Will be Put in Service Between June 1 and 15; Several More Center-Entrance Cars are to be Constructed This Summer.

Improvements the West Penn Tram-tion Company has had underway here during the last few months are nearing completion and within a short time the company will be making use of a new paint shop, an enlarged forge house and an additional storage barn
at the Greenwood shops.

Preparations for accommodating summer traffic are also being made and between June 1 and 15 the company will have the winter cars stored in the barns and summer cars in service. Nearly all of the open cars have been repainted and will present an attractive appearance.

The equipment on the lines here will be augmented during the next few weeks by the addition of several more cars. A consignment of cars purchased from the Chicago Car and Foundry Company will be delivered to Connellsville this week, and are being overhauled in the West Side shops. Four of these cars will be sent to Kittanning for service.
Other cars are to be built in the local shops. Orders are now being filled for material for the erection of several center-entrance cars, and these will be in use next fall.

As a measure against accidents, the company today began attaching mirrors on all cars for the use of motorists.
By these new motorists are able to see anyone at their rear, or at the side of the car while running, without changing his position.

The new paint shop is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy within a fortnight. It will have a capacity of six 45 and three 35-foot cars, tripling present paint shop facilities.

It is the intention of the company to use the old paint shop as a carpenter shop, where new cars will be erected and old cars renovated.

The additional storage barn has been built in close proximity to the present shops. Its capacity is twenty 45-foot cars. The building has been erected to accommodate cars that,
for lack of storage space, the company has been compelled to leave standing in the weather.

PRISONER IS JUDGED

Cops Find Revolver on Him and are Investigating.

While his case is being investigated,
Jacob Crutchley of Thompson No. 2 is being held at the lockup for 45 hours. Crutchley was arrested for drunkenness last night at the Western Pennsylvania passenger station. When searched at city hall a revolver was found on him.

Given a hearing before Burgess J.
L. Evans this morning, Crutchley stated that he had been visiting at the home of a relative in town, and that he was given the weapon which he was taking home.

Scottdale's Smallpox Patient Without Physician's Services

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, May 14.—No physician had been provided for Samuel Brown, the negro smallpox patient who was placed under quarantine in East Scottdale on Tuesday. Dr. O. R.
Altman, medical inspector for the county, was called at Untontown this forenoon, and said that it was the family's place to employ their regular physician. No physician here will consent to treat the case, unless assured of their fees, as all their other practice will be lost for months to come when a smallpox case is taken out.

Dr. Altman said that the poor board was responsible for supplying the physician if the family can not get one in a telephone conversation with Al H. Boyd today. Dr. Altman said that he had noticed the poor board of the presence of smallpox. The family has been supplied with food by a merchant of East Scottdale or they would have been without anything to eat
this week.

The quarantine is effective today.

Mr. Boyd says there has been no violation of the quarantine, and that the two guards have been keeping the people away from the premises and that those in the house are not going out.

Maplewood. He was 95 years old and resided all his life on the farm where he was born.

He never rode on a street car, railroad train or steamboat, despite the fact that he lived only a mile and a gahela railroad.

CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN

Wyoming Bill Arrives Over Western Maryland and Shows Here Today.

The first circus over the new Western Maryland railroad arrived in town this morning when Wyoming Bill,
the Historical Wild West and Real Rough Riders of the World arrived and began unloading. The wild west show will be given at Fayette Field.

It has been appearing in smaller towns throughout this section and while not the largest circus on the road, it is said to have several good features and furnish an interesting entertainment for those who like shows of this nature.

A large crowd came to town for the show and the streets were thronged with visitors. At the opening of the show the management stated that the rain would not interfere with the show. The parade attracted much attention and interest.

Chamber who left Connellsville several months ago to participate in the Circus War.

Mr. Perrus submitted a check for his membership fee for the year, and relates some of his experiences in the war. During the battle at Miana, he was injured, and is now on a two-week's furlough. The letter follows:

"Hope you will forgive me for not sending in my subscription long ago, because in the noise of war, I nearly forgot the duties of the citizen."

"I couldn't answer to the voice of the country which gave me birth, and so came over to help, in a measure, all I could."

"I was not mistaken, and during the fall of Miana and the conquest of Janina, among 720, I was lucky enough to get a badge from the Regenerated Faltherland, and I consider it as the best honor in my life. I was given the rank of captain and two Turkish bullets in the left leg below
the knee, not very far from each other—they didn't hit the bone and I won't be a cripple."

"Thanks to the good service of the Red Cross I recovered fully. They gave me a fortnight furlough and I came over to spend the time at home.

"The Godless of Persia seems to be not very far away. In setting an end to the present 'Ethiopian' war, and I hope to be among you."

MORE LIGHT.

The request of a promoter or field agent or other representative of unknown capital for a franchise for the installation of an electric lighting, steam heating and hot water service in Connellsville is sufficiently imposing to claim the serious attention of the council, but the members of that body were wise to postpone action until the proposition can be thoroughly investigated.

There is nothing to prevent the granting of another electric lighting franchise in the city. The franchises now in force are perpetual but not exclusive. The field is wide open.

But franchises should not be recklessly granted; in fact, they should not be granted at all unless the council is assured that those applying for them are able to carry out their plans and are asking permission in good faith for the sole purpose of legitimate competition, and not merely seeking franchises for the purpose of making merchandise of it, or of using it to blackmail the corporation.

The franchise should not be granted unless those asking for it shall furnish a sufficient bond indemnifying the city from damages by reason of any abandonment of the franchise rights, and any franchise granted should be void if work is not commenced and completed within reasonable periods.

In any event, the council should ask for more light on this question. The time has gone by when franchises of any kind are given out to private speculators surrounded by the darkness of mystery. Let there be light on the new company.

WIRELESS IN MINE.

Experiments are being made in England for a wireless telephone or telegraph service in the coal mines. It is claimed that such a system can be perfectly wireless within the mine, will not be necessary, but that communication can be had to every part of the mine, even to portions shut off by falls. Communication has been established through hundreds of feet of solid rock.

Evidently the perfection of this system would be a great step in the work of safeguarding mine employment. The developments of science are fast making underground employment safer than outside work.

The West Side was supposed to have a complete sewer system, but if it is any respect deficient, it should be made whole without delay. In an urban community sewers first are the first consideration of safety first.

The Uptown is essentially a shopping shoe for, although smart and trim, it is unusually comfortable.

This shoe is distinguished from other models by a wide, noticeably raised toe. The effect, while striking, is distinctly attractive and feminine. It is favorite among women who are constantly on their feet, because generous toe room is allowed by the high, roomy toe and sweeping outside curve. The short vamp and high, rounded toe are features of the shoe. The splendid King Calf, of which this shoe is made, will stand service without getting shabby.

NEWS OF A DAY
IN SCOTTDALE.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, May 16.—The body of John J. Brennan, wife of John P. Brennan, the coke operator who died at the Pittsburgh hospital, Thursday, was brought to the late home of the deceased on Broadway today, and the funeral services will be held on Monday morning.

HEAVY STORMS.

The town was visited by two rather strong lightning storms Thursday afternoon and evening. Accompanying the storm of the afternoon there was a violent windstorm in some localities. The funeral of Mrs. Julian McAl. Shallenberger was set for 2 o'clock at the United Brethren Church at Owen'sville, and as the horses and carriage were going from Scottdale to Owen'sville, it was overtaken by the storm about "Tip Top." The blind blew very strongly and Bert Knipple, who was driving the team, said the pressure of the wind pushed the horses along, while the carriages seemed in danger of being upset. The storm was also heavy in Owen'sville. Rev. J. J. Funk, pastor, and burial was at the Scottdale cemetery.

A NEW TRAIN.

Agent H. D. Hooyer has been working industriously for the putting on of a late train of Pittsburgh, on the Southwestern branch, and said today that such a train is going to be put in operation on the summer schedule going into effect May 26.

The proposed train will leave Pittsburgh every day at 11:22 o'clock and will be a great convenience to anyone going to the city, as they now have to leave much earlier to get out to this locality.

VETERANS BANQUET.

Veterans of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad aid a banquet in Pittsburgh. Among those who were attending from here were William Nolan, Robert Gove, Michael Mathias, Charles Shantz, George Wise, G. H. Huston, Frank Bremer, Samuel Lomanacker and H. D. Hooyer.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

MOUNT PLEASANT, May 16.—The seniors and the juniors had one of the longest class nights ever held in the high school here on Wednesday evening. The trouble began when the junior class, every member being present, gathered at the East Main street home of Miss Victoria Crosson, practicing the class song. The singers gathered under the window to listen to the song when the Juniors ducked them with water. On the Juniors sang, little dreaming that the seniors had donned the orange and black from the high school building. Soon the junior class came and down came the orange and black, and the blue and gold colors floated. Then the senior colors went up, and the night lasted until 2 A. M. Thursday. The junior colors were floating from the high school yesterday morning, and a senior class who had been drawn down carelessly were gathered up by some children and tied to their bicycles. These were bought from the children and burned. But about 8 o'clock yesterday morning when some of the faculty came to the school house the junior colors came to stay, for they were hauled down.

The Junior Clef Club is holding rehearsals at the Mount Pleasant Institute under direction of Prof. Emil Hauck and Miss Ruth Taylor for the operetta, "Little Boy Blue," which they expect to give in the Grand Opera House, June 2. Leslie Updike, with the Blue Birds, will be singing with the others. Genevieve Mullin is Katie-Sue-Did, and Blanche Updike, Katie-Sue-Didn't. Features of the play are the treble chorus of twelve boys, the Echo Chorale of twelve boys, the echo choir chorus by twelve girls and the four musical frogs, Joseph Snyder, Edward Gandy, Matthew Shields and Clyde Gaines. There will be altogether a chorus of forty.

Joseph Schlederky was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace L. S. Ihde last evening, charged with assault and battery by Joseph Shultz. At the hearing the trouble was made out by both parties, who were from Tarent, coming to terms and shaking hands. The defendant paid the $10 costs.

Mario Hull, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hull, is dead at their Brinkerton home. Funeral services will be held and the interment made in the Alverton cemetery today.

The body of Ephraim Etter, who was killed by a stroke of lightning at his Collinsville, Oklahoma, home on Monday, will arrive here today and will be taken to the Bridgerton street home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Etter. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

VANDERBILT.

VANDERBILT, May 16.—The congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church was well attended. The most important business transacted was the consideration of the new improvements to the church. It was decided to go ahead with the work. The building committee, which is composed of the trustees of the church, will write up the specifications to the plans which any have and bids will be received by them in the near future. It was decided to hold an evangelistic revival meeting this fall. Miss Lillian Newton was elected organizer.

END LIVER TROUBLE
WITHOUT CALOMEL

Untrustworthy Drug, Thought to Loosen the Teeth, Now Made Absolutely Unnecessary.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are the mild but safest laxative known, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Dr. Edwards has been calomel's uncompromising foe. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets, a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. These pleasant, harmless little tablets do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids of calomel. They take care of the liver and quieten the trouble of the teeth. Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel at all, but to let Olive Tablets take their place.

Most people, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" the clouded brain and how they "spark up" the spirits.

At 10c and 25c a box. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

The DAUGHTER of DAVID KERR

by Harry King Tootle
Illustrations by Ray Wallace

"That's true, but the gods laugh and are our masters still. I felt that I owed it to my father to remain with him in Belmont. Then came the day in Judge Gilbert's office. Did ever a girl have a courtship crowded into half an hour? So short a time there was between those few words of love and the rude awakening which followed that there remains to me now not even sweet memory of that avowal which all girls cherish so. And then—well, that's why I've come today. I couldn't let you go away without asking you to forgive me for what I said in Judge Gilbert's office."

"There's no need of speaking of forgiveness. Please do not say any more."

She was not to be deterred from her sweet purpose, and therefore affected not to hear, going straight on with her narrative.

"You see, I was proud of my father. All my life he'd been an ideal, not a reality. I had thought him incapable of anything else. It turned out I was wrong—what I said about you."

"No, Gloris, you just didn't understand."

"But just the same, I was wrong, and wanted to tell you so before I went away. I know I should not be here when you return, and so I came today."

"You're not going to leave Belmont!"

"Yes, I am. Do you think I could stay?" Her tone made Wright's heart sink. "No, I lack the courage, Joe, the moral courage. There's that touch of the butterfly left in me. I'm not strong and brave like you are."

Gloria could not know how his strength and bravery were slipping from him little by little as they talked. Her very presence was winning its subtle spell over him, stirring him with the thought that he was losing her. So she was going away. He wondered why, speculating on how she had come to learn the truth. This led him to ask:

"But your father?"

Had Wright known what a pitiful judgment this would evoke, he never would have spoken.

"My father! What am I to him? I haven't seen him from that day. Since then I've been with Mrs. Hayes. When I learned at luncheon that you were going away, I had to come because I can't forgive myself for what I said in Judge Gilbert's office that came near ending to—dramatically—for you."

"Please don't think of it," he begged. "I don't connect you in any manner with the attack on me."

"But I do," she insisted, "because I know the truth." Here was the whole reason for her coming, she told herself. "Since you're in this fight to stay—even though you're fighting my own father—I want you to have all the protection that knowledge of the truth will afford. I've come to warn you."

Wright saw that he had not made her understand that he was giving up his fight.

"But I'm going awdy."

"Yes, you've told me; but you're coming back again because you know your place is here. There's work to do."

He recognized instantly that it was her wish for him to remain. Her belief in his efforts to make Belmont a better place. Not wishing to explain what pain it would constantly give him were he to do so, he avoided the matter by referring to her own future.

"What are you going to do?"

"I? I'm going ahead in a few days."

"What does your father say to that?"

Gloria's lip curled with scorn at the question. Her answer came with the coldness of a woman of the world. "He can't say anything. What is he to me? I haven't even sent him word yet. He gave me everything in the world, but then at the supreme moment of my life he robbed me of it all. Would a father do that?" she asked fiercely. "What allusion does I owe him. The claim of blood! Bah! He's always wished I'd been a boy. He didn't lie to me because he loved me. He didn't even know me. Do you think it wrenches my heart to leave him now? No; a thousand times no. We've lived too many years apart. What have we in sympathy? We'd be strangers though we lived under the same roof for years."

"But when you go abroad what are you going to do?" He could see no future for her.

"Just drift. There is so much that I want to forget."

"Much, Gloris?" he asked gently.

"Yes, much." She would not let him trap her into a damaging admission. "Everything?"

"Everything is painful."

Her attitude, he felt it was antagonistic, impatient even of his kindly questioning, stirred him to a vigorous reply. After all, she was but a child, and like a child wanted to abridge the lesson life was teaching her.

"Surely I've not been mistaken in you," he began. "It's by suffering that we learn to live. You've only come to see life as it is, that's all. Would you throw away the precious knowledge that is power for an Arcadian ignorance akin to weakness? You've just said that you've come to warn me of something. Were you true to your theory of life, you would leave me in ignorance, because the truth

THE BACK YARD FARMER

Prof. John Willard Botte

Sweet Peas.

vivid white. The colors are not merely surface colors. They are deep colors that actually live.

No flower is more generally beloved than the old fashioned Sweet Pea. It was dear to the hearts of our great grandmothers and their great-grandmothers as well, and for no telling how many generations back of that.

It belongs to a large family whose scientific name is taken from the peculiar butterfly-like form of the blossoms. The garden varieties of green peas, string, wax, navy, pole and lima beans and the ornamental beans, are its first cousins.

No flower will grow better under than many varying conditions as this one. Light soil or heavy, fertilizer or no fertilizer, deep trench or shallow, much care or little, it will do its very best to bloom early and often, and it will succeed most remarkably well.

Did you ever know any persons who did not like the perfume of the Sweet Pea?

In variety of tints the most fastidious can be suited, as there are 40 or 50 different shades and mixtures to choose from. They range from a deep purple through all shades and mixtures of blue and red, to the purest white. The colors are not merely surface colors. They are deep colors that actually live.

The proper way to grow sweet peas to their greatest perfection is to dig a trench a foot wide and a foot deep as early as possible in the spring. Fill in six inches with rich, loose loam and plant the seed three inches apart and one-half inch deep after soaking them in water. As soon as the seedlings are six inches high fill in with earth around them until only two inches of the plant shows. This treatment will insure a more extensive root development and more resistance to drought. Fill in from time to time until the bottom of the trench is level with the land. Furnish a support for the vines, either woven wire, branches, or a fence, and they will run up several feet.

Be sure that you pick all of the blossoms as soon as they are perfect and the plants will bloom from early summer until frost. If allowed to go to seed the plants will promptly cease blooming.

The Sweet Pea might well be our national flower. May it bloom forever.

Success depends largely upon Good Health

In your race for success don't lose sight of the fact that only through good health can you attain success.

The tension you must necessarily place upon your nerves, and the sacrifice of proper exercise you have to make at times must be balanced in some way.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

is the balancing power—a vitalizing power. It acts on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, thus purifying the blood and giving strength to the nerves, indirectly aiding the liver to perform its very important work. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been successful for a generation as a tonic and body builder. Sold by medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form—box of "Tablets" mailed on receipt of 50 one-cent stamps.

If in failing health write Dr. R. V. Pierce's faculty at Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, New York.

Right Off the Bat—This Advertisement to Men

Connellsville has a clothing store that ALL men can trust to have ready--when they're ready--the suits they want at the price they want to pay. It's a store of sincere, courteous, quiet and efficient service.

The best work done by the picked clothing makers of America is shown in this store as it is not shown in any other Connellsville store that we know of.

In the matter of lower priced clothing--$15 suits for example--the stocks of blue serge and fancy fabric suits, sack or Norfolk Models, have no rival in town in the matter of shape--retaining, color--proof and service--proof. Furthermore the backers of this safe clothing store vouch for every suit that goes into a patrons' possession.

Suits under $15 and up to $35 could not regularly be made of the same excellent all--wool materials in the same dependable way to sell for a penny less. The man is yet to come along that can't be fitted correctly here.

Panama Hats at $5.00 that Look Like $7.50.

particularly if you compare them with the $6.00 Panamas in other stores about town. The luxury, style and comfort of a Panama hat are thus brought below the thought of extravagance, through a better grade here for $5.00.

These genuine South American Panamas are all of good quality and have been treated by the same process that makes our $7.50 hats look their best.

Put Our Straw Hats at $2.00 Against $3.00 Ones Elsewhere.

and you'll select ours nine times out of ten. Not because you'll be a dollar in but because it would take an expert to point out the difference in looks. The straws are as fine, the making as carefully done and the finish just as fine as any $3.00 hat at the majority of stores—and why? A price concession made to us to introduce a good maker's hats to Connellsville. Sailor shaped in a variety of brim widths and crown heights, and soft brim affairs for elderly folks. Other straws $1.00, $1.50 to $4.00.
